Children under twelve years of age at the time of embarkation, five dollars less than the above; and infants under twelve months thirteen dollars less than the above-named prices, to Boston or Albany, and other places in proportion; but we will not issue a pre-paid certificate for children under twelve years of age, unless accompanied by a passenger over twelve years, who must be paid for at the same time and on the same certificate.

The above prices embrace a steerage passage from Liverpool to Boston, by any of our Bonafide Line of Packets; previous at sea according to the undermentioned dietary scale; doctor's attendance and medicine on board when required; port charges at Boston, and all expenses of transportation of passengers and baggage from the ship at Boston, to the destination agreed upon.

In addition to any provisions which the passengers may themselves bring, the following quantities, at least, of water and provisions will be supplied to each steerage passenger, of twelve years of age and over, every week during the passage, commencing on the day of sailing, and at least three quarts of water per day:

Two oz. of Tea; 8 oz. of Sugar; 5

VOLUME X. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL. NEW SERIES.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Published every day by Wm. H. Watson & John P. Fillmore PROPRIETORS. FROM THE BANK AND PRESS OF RUFUS KING & CO.

WEEKLY, - - - - - 1 00

Friday Morning, April 28.

NOTICE TO BUSINESS MEN.

The circulation of the DAILY SENTINEL is by far the largest of any daily paper published in the State; and offers the greatest advantages to Merchants, Mechanics and others in a wide field of Advertising.

The Weekly Sentinel has now a circulation of over [illegible] and is constantly and rapidly increasing [illegible] with the Weekly of the same date in the [illegible]

Advertisements appear in the Tri-Weekly Sentinel [illegible] at the usual charge.

The Daily is $5.00, or the Tri-Weekly $3.00 each if [illegible] Weekly $1.00 per year, payable in advance.

THE NORTHEASTER.—The wind blew a gale from the North-east all day yesterday, and the waves tumbled in upon the beach, and through and over the piers, in grand style. The clipper Grey Hound and schr De Witt, from below the islands, made the harbor handsomely early in the morning. The propeller Dunkirk entered during the night previous.

The schooners Henry Norton, Equator, Clipper City and G Knapp, were safe inside of the piers by 9 A M.

The schr. Twin Brothers, of and from Chicago, was unfortunate, and, missing the entrance, went on the Sand beach south of the piers at about 8 A M.

The fine three masted clipper Badger State, of [illegible] hove in sight before noon, but anchored [illegible] and, together with the brig Nebraska, [illegible] for Buffalo with a cargo of wheat, rode out the gale till about 6 P M when the Badger [illegible] her cables dragging, put out to sea.—The Badger State is loaded with railroad iron and bound for this place.

The Steamer Collins lay in the river all day, and no boat arrived from Chicago.

A propeller, supposed to be the Nile from below, passed the North Point, at sunset, and [illegible] to the southward, having lost her smoke pipe and received other damage.

THE DOCUMENTARY HISTORY.

The Madison Journal, after reflecting upon the probable reasons for the unscrupulous course of the Journal in its defence of the State Administration—Bostow and the balance"—thinks [illegible] sufficient moving cause in the fat job [illegible] the Documentary of the State. As a matter of considerable importance, we [illegible] what the Journal says upon the subject:

It will be remembered that a law was passed at the last session authorizing the publication of the Documentary History of the State. It is such a [illegible] and is such a fair specimen of legislation of last winter, that we lay it before our readers. It is as follows;

The Governor and Secretary of state are hereby appointed commissioners to procure to be published so much of the Documentary History of the State as has been prepared for publication [illegible] and, in such form, in two volumes, on new and [illegible] good book paper, bound in the [illegible] and binding works of state history, with such notes, appendix, and index as may be prescribed by the person appointed by [illegible] to superintend such publication: [illegible] The cost of such publications do not [illegible] one dollar and thirty cents [illegible] per volume.

This act shall take effect from and after [illegible]

It will be remarked that no limit whatever is [illegible] the number of copies to be printed. It might be 1000 or a million and be within the law large enough. The governor and secretary were appointed Mr Brown, of the Argus, to do [illegible] and we understand have authorized him [illegible] edition of 5,000. The work is to [illegible] volumes, and 5000 copies will make [illegible] amounting to the comfortable sum of $13,000. We think the state officers have been quite moderate in their order, leaving the latitude given them. A few [illegible] nature however may account for [illegible] reverse, and unwonted zeal of the [illegible]

As to the matter is that the Milwaukee [illegible] estimates the cost of this printing at [illegible] The Argus has been denouncing the [illegible] estimate of the Sentinel—[illegible] of its own opinion, that the tax-payers [illegible] be satisfied that the estimates of the Sentinel are quite low enough.

[illegible] for printing involves a clear violation [illegible] constitution, like many other acts of [illegible] administration. It is probably a violation of the contract with the state printer; but [illegible] it out of the question it must come [illegible] the following clause of article 4, section [illegible] of that instrument:

"The Legislature shall provide by law that all [illegible] required for the use of the state, and [illegible] authorized and required by them to [illegible] for their use, or for the state, shall be let [illegible] to the lowest bidder."

The provision is clearly violated in the act in question, but such violations are becoming so common that it is hardly worth mentioning.

We suppose that we must acknowledge the [illegible] at our expense. We did estimate the cost [illegible] at $1200; but we did not have the [illegible] before us—we supposed that there was but [illegible] ordered at the last session—we [illegible] that it would not be larger, or cost [illegible] the transactions of the State Agricultural [illegible] and finally, we desired to be entirely [illegible] boards as well in this as in the [illegible] estimates. We certainly had no idea that [illegible] estimate in this item, could, by any possibility, [illegible] to $15,000.

LAND MONOPOLY.—The "democracy" of the [illegible]—the land monopoly party—refuse [illegible] to give single quarter section—but sprinkle [illegible] the hands of speculators.—Madison Journal.

What it was ascertained that individuals had taken up vast tracts of school lands in the North [illegible] our case nearly or quite 50,000 acres—several attempts were made to get some action on the part of the Legislature, to prevent such [illegible] in future. Finally towards the end of the session, the Assembly passed a bill, intended [illegible] reform, but the Senate quietly left it under the table.

RACINE IN DANGER. Our neighbors of Racine [illegible] to hold a large meeting to protest against [illegible] Company, who purchase the Janesville Standard [illegible] and shake us as fast as they [illegible] them:

We have Racine well in this part of the State, [illegible] first step seems to become a tool of Milwaukee, it will look out for its corns, for we shall [illegible] it tread hard.

The Janesville paper we cannot read. It [illegible] as the Sentinel says, opposed to the Valley Road, but is it so with the Free Press. If so [illegible] people of Janesville want to know it and ask [illegible] by what authority it makes the statement [illegible] Janesville Standard.

The Sentinel never made any such "statement," as the Standard perfectly well knows. What we [illegible] was that a majority of the Rock County [illegible] between the Janesville Free Press, Beloit [illegible] and Janesville Emigrantin, were "opposed to giving away the Public Lands to private [illegible]." Our "authority" for that statement [illegible] the papers named themselves.

[illegible] "spoiled" the Legislature, the [illegible] took the responsibility of appointing [illegible] Emigrant Agent for another year, [illegible] cost to the State of $5800, without warrant [illegible] and in defiance of public sentiment.

The Sentinel should quote correctly. We [illegible] say that Mr. Brown had gone to Washington. We simply said that he had gone "where he could give Nebraska a turn."—Wisconsin.

That is all the Sentinel said you said. [illegible] mentioned where he had gone, and [illegible] Were we supplied the interesting information as to what matters he went on.

UNDERSTOOD DENIAL.—We are assured by a friend that the Chronicle has not accompanied the Governor in his pilgrimage to Washington, but remains at home. Our authority for the statement [illegible] was a paragraph in the Sheboygan Journal.

STATE EXPENSES.—The Waukesha Democrat copies our table of the State expenses for the current year, under the present spendthrift administration, and remarks upon them as follows:

The above footing exhibits a very pleasant little sum for the tax payers of Wisconsin to make good, particularly as it is in addition to the town and county taxes. The State tax is more than double what it ever was before, and what is most singular nobody is to blame for it. There is scarcely a member of the last Legislature who will admit for one moment, that these extraordinary appropriations passed with his assent, but on the contrary there is almost a universal protest among them that their skirts are clear of any connexion, near or remote, with this system of Legislative frauds. The Governor is not the law making power, proper, and of course he never made these appropriations, besides if he had the constitutional power, his well known character for integrity precludes utterly, the idea that "he should do this thing." There is however one remarkable thing about these bills, which without proving anything wrong, shows what we might call remarkable coincidences. In almost every instance when appropriations have been made, except for the ordinary expenses of the State government, the proceedings show that the bills were introduced, and urged to a passage by the particular pets of the Governor, and in almost every instance his particular friends are charged, by his appointment, with the unpleasant duty of disbursing—or something else—the funds appropriated. We are gratified to know that but one paper in the State has the virtuous impudence boldly to sustain the wrongs done at Madison during the last session of the Legislature and that paper is at the seat of Government and is the special organ of—Some two or three timid Journals say nothing for fear of offending the powers that be. They can't say anything good, and dare not say anything harsh. Truth would be harsh, and they they therefore dare not publish the facts. The great majority of all the papers in this State of all parties join in well deserved condemnation of the present state of things, and mourn over the evident necessity of endurance of another year.

EDUCATION IN VIRGINIA.—The Richmond Whig argues the necessity for adopting a more efficient system of education in that State. It says:

"Every decade exhibits a rapid and fearful increase of this mass of ignorance. In 1840 the number of unlettered in Virginia amounted to 60,000. In 1850 it exceeded 80,000. At this rate it will not require many centuries to extinguish all knowledge of letters in the State.

GOV. BARSTOW AND THE SENTINEL.—If the Sentinel can make any political capital out of Gov. Barstow's visit to Washington, well and good; we have no objection to it, but we can assure it, it won't make any capital among gentlemen.

If, our poor opinion, a Governor has a right to be, ex-officio, considered a private man, and when he goes, after a legislative session, either to Washington or elsewhere, we really think he might get clear of the persecutions of gentlemen.—Janesville Standard.

Gov. BARSTOW is entitled to be considered "a private man" when he travels on private business, and the Sentinel neither disputes his right to go to Washington, or any where else, on his own affairs, nor assumes the prerogative to criticise or censure his movements. But when Gov. BARSTOW goes to Washington in his official capacity, and, according to the mysterious givings out of his confidential organs, upon affairs of the State, the Sentinel and every other paper has a perfect and indisputable right to comment upon and, if they see fit, to condemn the proceedings. That right the Sentinel claims and will continue to exercise, even at the risk of shocking the sensibilities of the Janesville Standard.

The Crystal Palace.

The CRYSTAL PALACE, under the superintendence of P. T. BARNUM as President of the new Board of Directors, is to be re-opened on the 4th of May next, with appropriate ceremonies. Mr. BARNUM says, in a recent circular:

The interval mentioned will afford a much needed opportunity for the reception and arrangement of a world of rare and beautiful articles that have recently come consigned to us from Europe, as well as some exceedingly interesting American and Foreign specimens in Machinery, Manufacture, and General Art, that have awaited our determination to place the Crystal Palace among the imperishable enterprises of the Age and the nation.

The Dutch Government has just contributed a large and choice variety of singularly unique articles of luxury and use from Japan. They number about one thousand and cannot but prove wonderfully attractive, as tending to throw much light upon the peculiar habits of a reserved and extraordinary people.

Our Foreign Agent, Mr. Charles Buschek, advises us, that in consequence of the unsettled state of the European Continent, the number of costly paintings and valuable chefs d'oeuvres in sculpture, ready to be placed at our disposal, is unusually great and will be forwarded without delay; now, that every apprehension that the Exhibition will be a transitory speculation, has been dispos d of, His report in relation to the more novel and elegant manufactures of Europe is equally gratifying; and I may add that arrangements are being perfected for the purchase of a collection of admirable copies of all the celebrated statues of the Antiques—a collection that, in itself, will present the highest claims to the popular taste and attention.

A perfectly correct and handsome model of Venice, covering about one thousand square feet and exhibiting every minute detail of that beautiful city, in carved wood, from the reality itself, will also be added.

Several eminent Horticulturists have manifested a desire to embellish the Crystal Palace with a profuse variety of uncommon Plants and Flowers. A number of Musical Societies and Bands have also imitated a wish to add, in turn their attractions to the popularity of the Exhibition.—With all these suitable arrangements will be effected.

The committee, (consisting of Messrs. Mortimer Livingston, Watts Sherman, Wm. Wheeler, Wm. B. Dinsmore, and 50 others R. Haswell,) appointed to solicit in our own citizens for Fine Art contributions, and that but one feeling pervades all classes of the people in reference to our undertaking. All seem to manifest the most earnest interest in its success, and all are anxious for an opportunity to aid us in its popularization.—We may confidently depend, therefore, upon a very extensive selection of gems of art from private and domestic sources, worth in the aggregate several hundred thousand dollars, and in point of intrinsic merit approached by no similar exhibition upon this continent.

The amplest facilities will be extended to exhibitors, among which will be the important right to affix the price to any article of which they may wish to dispose, to direct visitors where duplicates may be obtained, and remove their contributions, at any time, by giving only one week's notice in advance.

The machinery department will be much fuller and more effective than hitherto. There will be operating specimens of nearly every great invention, and in many instances the entire process of manufacturing various fabrics will be exhibited.

A steam power and space will be gratuitously furnished for the most interesting processes in art and industry, and as inventors and exhibitors will be permitted, under certain judicious regulations to run the machinery for their own benefit, this branch of the Exhibition is expected to become especially interesting.

Allow me to recommend, in this connection that the Board of Directors announce, at an early day, its determination to award medals and other marks of merit to those who may be, by competent judges, pronounced worthy of the distinction. The medals and diplomas awarded for 1853 will be ready for delivery in the beginning of May.

Under the new organization every article will be classified to facilitate inspection. Those of the same kind, as far as practicable, will all be grouped together, no matter from what quarter of the world contributed. The visitor may thus, at a single glance, institute a just comparison between the different developements of taste and skill in different countries. A novel and useful plan of re-arrangement has been decided upon that will nearly double the space previously appropriated to Exhibitors throughout the entire building.—We need not hesitate to publish, therefore, our ability to find room for anything pleasing or useful that may be entrusted to us, and to invite every man and woman in the world to originate something for this new consecration of the "United of all Nations," that may redound to their credit and benefit our common humanity.

The Directors have also issued a circular confirming the statements of the President, and setting forth in strong terms the increased attractions of the Palace. Arrangements are to be made with travelling routes, for visits to the Exhibition at reduced rates.

The English Naval Commander.

Sir CHARLES NAPIER has been sent to command the British fleet destined to operate against Russia. Great confidence is felt in his experience and bravery. He is a man of approved courage and has been fortunate in his career as a soldier.—The following are given as prominent incidents of his life:

In 1833, he volunteered to serve the cause of the Queen of Portugal against the usurpations of Don Miguel, and while in command of a little squadron of frigates and corvettes, he captured a far superior force, including two line of battle ships, on one of which he was himself among the first to board. While hanging in the shrouds, trying to get upon deck, he was poked at by a Portuguese pikeman, and very nearly lost his life. After gaining the deck, an officer rushed at him to run him through. Sir Charles quietly parried his thrust, and very coolly giving his assailant a hearty kick, sent him tumbling down the hatchway. The victory which he gained on that occasion decided the destinies of Portugal.

It was during this war that the late Lord Wm. Russell, hearing that Sir Charles Napier was in the vicinity of Valencia went with a friend to see him, and soon discovered a man dressed in a very "easy" costume, and accompanied by a marine, bearing two muskets on his shoulders. "Well, Napier," said he, "what are you doing here?"—"I'm going to take Valencia," was the reply.—"But," said Lord William Russell, "Valencia is a fortified town, and in order to take it, you must open trenches, make approaches, and establish batteries and breaches, which things take a great deal of time, and must be done according to rule." "Oh," said Sir Charles, "I have no time for that, I mean to take the town by letter." He accordingly sent the Governor a letter, telling him that it was much better to surrender at discretion.—The Governor, who was a man of prudence, surrendered, and Valencia was handed over to the Queen.

The next great occasion on which Sir Charles Napier took a prominent and distinguished part, was the war in Syria. Here, at the head of his marines and some land troops, he stormed and captured Sidon, taking three or four thousand prisoners. Subsequently, he took an active and important part in the attack and capture of Acre. Afterwards, going to Alexandria with a portion of the fleet, he persuaded Mehemet Ali to sign a convention which led to the peaceful evacuation of Syria by the Egyptian forces—thus saving a vast amount of human life. The result of that compromise is now manifest in the fact that the troops and ships of Egypt, instead of being engaged as formerly in hostile conflict with those of the Sultan, are now ranged beside them, and the Pacha is as well effected towards his sovereign, as any subject in his dominions.

It has been said of Sir Charles Napier, that one great secret of his success is, that he calculates so many moves beforehand.

AMERICANS IN PARIS.—A Paris correspondent of The National Intelligencer speaks as follows:

Mr. Mason, our Minister at this capital, is an estimable and honorable man and personally is highly respected; but it is unfortunate that at a time like the present with a general war about involving the whole continent he does not understand French, which is a great disadvantage.—With all this, however, our countrymen here are generally well satisfied with the appointment, as they are at any rate represented by a high minded gentleman who compares so favorably with other American diplomatic agents who, to say the least, have reflected no credit on us. Our citizens are here in crowds, and present themselves in great numbers to Mr. Mason for presentation to the Emperor. At a recent levee our good-tempered Minister, at the head of some thirty or more of his countrymen, said to the Emperor, as he stepped before the group, "Permit me to introduce your Majesty to my countrymen; they are "all Americans." This turning of tables, by introducing the Emperor, only created a smile; but one of the group made a much more unfortunate error. He was a New Yorker, and had been it appears, personally acquainted with Louis Napoleon when in former days the latter was in that city. Of this in very bad taste, he reminded the Emperor and then added: "I hope to have the "pleasure of again seeing your Majesty in New "York!" This was almost as bad as the speech of a lady to George the Third, "that the thing she most wanted to see was a coronation."

It is estimated, from observations taken at Wells-st. Bridge at different hours of the day, that no less than 55,000 teh cles pass over it every 24 hours. Chicago Dem. Press.

Can't the Press at ate 100 of the number, so as to make it seem more reasonable?

City Matters.

POLICE COURT, April 27.

A complaint was made by the Wood Inspector against John Doe for violating the wood ordinance, and a warrant issued against the offender.

The bridge tender of the Spring Street bridge also stated that two other persons had driven on a fast trot over spring street bridge, but he was unable to follow them. When he gets the power to arrest them summarily, the chances will be greater for stopping fast driving on the bridges.

A complaint was sworn to and a warrant issued against Harvey Birchard for an assault and battery upon S. M. Booth on the 27th of April.

ARRESTED AGAIN.—We noticed some time since a man named HENRY MILLER being discharged from our county jail. He has since been arrested for a burglary in Watertown, indicted and pleading guilty, will be sent to Waupun.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Col. VAN SLYK again invites the attention of our citizens to the necessity of furnishing him with information relative to removals and changes in business. From what we learn of the work, we think that the new DIRECTORY will be very valuable as a book of reference for residences and statistics of our city.

Messrs. HOUGHTON & Co. of No. 206 West Water St. give the public all the necessary information relative to their very extensive and well selected stock of goods across the river. Those who have occasion to call upon them will find a neat store, courteous attendance, and the best of goods displayed before them.

The BANK OF COMMERCE, lately started in business at the corner of East Water and Michigan Streets, sets itself in array before our readers as ready for all comers. One feature of its arrangements—the SAVINGS BANK—is worthy of the attention of the industrious. The weekly surplusses put into the hands of the conductors of this institution, will be safe for the depositors.

KELLOG & STRONG advertise for sale a quantity of dried fruit.

A SOAP & CANDLE FACTORY is noticed for sale on easy terms. Large quantities of these articles are now exported from our city, and the market is good.

CALEB WALL reminds buyers and sellers of real estate that he has an extensive sale of real estate in preparation for the 6th of June, at which time there will probably be a large attendance of capitalists who have been looking about the city, and have expressed their intention to invest largely. See advertisements.

Dealers in Ardent Spirits will see a notice, signed by the City Marshal, extending to them a cordial invitation to "call at the captain's office and settle" for their licenses for the ensuing year.

NATIONAL GUARDS.—A business meeting of the Military Company was held on Wednesday evening, at which it was decided to lease the upper story of the Phœnix Buildings for an Armory and Drill Room. The Secretary of the Company was directed to make out a new roll and to notify every member of the next meeting. Some further business was transacted, when the Company adjourned to meet again on Thursday evening next, at their new Armory, to commence Drilling.

Clean the Streets!

Great complaints are made by our citizens, of the filthy condition of our streets and alleys.—Something like an attempt has been made to clean portions of East Water Street, but other streets and numberless alleys require to be cleaned of the accumulated filth of years; piles of manure from stables, masses of offal from butchers' shops, heaps of the sweepings of stores, left to rot in the gutters, and at every breeze rising to offend the nostrils of the passer by. Our city has been remarkably healthy for the last two or three years, owing to the mercy of Providence more than the labors of the street inspectors. The Cholera and other diseases which have visited Eastern and Southern Cities, during the past year, may pay us a visit the coming summer, and unless our city is thoroughly cleansed, hundreds will fall victims for the want of proper precaution on the part of the officials, whose duty it is to CLEAN THE STREETS

THE NEW STORE.—We yesterday saw at G. W. Mygatt's the River front of H. J. Nazro's new store. Although facing the river the front will present as handsomeam appearance as any other store in the city does, on the street.

BURNHAM'S NEW WAREHOUSE.—The plan of Burnham's new Warehouse, commenced immediately below Plankinton's Packing House, near the Depot, is now completed by G. W. Mygatt. The front is exceedingly handsome. The size of the Warehouse is 41 feet front, 120 feet depth, of brick, 4 stores high. Three of the stories, when filled, will contain 250,000 bushels of wheat.

LECTURE.—By request, Rev. Mead Holmes of Waukesha will deliver a discourse in the Spring Street Church, on Friday evening April 28th, at 7½ o'clock, on the Fugitive Slave Law, discussing the following points. 1st., Is it reasonable? 2nd, Is it Constitutional? 3d, Is it Scriptural? 4th, Is it binding?

ARRIVAL.—The schooner Twin Brothers, Captain WINCHELER, from Chicago, bound for Kewaunee for lumber for Loomis & Ludington of Chicago, went ashore yesterday morning below the mouth of the river. The captain was trying to run in, when a sudden shift of wind about 2 points, drove him to leeward of the piers, and the vessel went on the beach, where she now lies high and dry. She is owned by Reimar & Burchard of this city, who were both on board at the time. She will probably get off easily.

THROOP & BAILEY. These gentlemen, at their new and elegant store on East Water St. have just received a large stock of hats, caps and other articles in their line, direct from New York, all of the latest styles and favorite patterns and just the thing for the Spring fashions. Give them a call.

THEATRE.—Messrs. Langtishe & Andrews offer another inviting programme to-night, "the Orphan of Geneva; and the Post of Honor." These gentlemen are assiduous in their efforts to entertain the public, and merit better success than they have this far met with.

☞ The New York Tribune thus compliments one of our Milwaukee German periodicals:

The Atlantis, a monthly periodical published in Milwaukee in the German language, deserves to be numbered among the productions adapted to exert a sound and truly informing influence on the public mind. It has all the best characteristics of German thought, without any of its exaggeration; the principles advocated are in harmony with the real comprehension of American democracy; and its appreciation of the various subjects it treats, scientific as well as political, is of a cheerful and progressive cast. In one word, if The Atlantis maintains its present character, it ought to be largely supported, as well by Americans who read German as by those to whom that language is native.

PEQUONNOCK BANK!—Thompson, the Bank Note Reporter, having thrown discredit upon the Pequonnock Bank, of Bridgeport, Conn., P. T. BARNUM comes out pledging his entire fortune, for 12 months, for the full payment of its notes and deposites. He says, further:

Its notes have never been discredited by the Suffolk Bank of Boston, the Metroplitan Bank of New York, nor any of the brokers in Wall street except John Thompson. In the fine the author of this attack will immediately be prosecuted for a libel.

AN EXPLANATION.—"Doctor," said an old lady the other day to her family physician kin you tell me how it is that some folks are born dumb?,,

"Why, hem! certainly madam," replied the doctor. "it is owing to the fact that they came into the world without the power of speach,"

"La me!" replied the old lady, "now just see what it is to have a phisic edication; I've axed my old man more nor a hundred times the same thing, and all I could ever get out of him was," kase they is?"

"Well, I'm glad I axed you, for I never should have died satisfied without knowing it."

For the Sentinel.

The Jennings' Estate.

Messrs. Editors:

I noticed in your paper of the 25th an article having reference to the "great Jennings' Estate" in England, so called, in which it is stated, that the property falls to the Corbins instead of the Jennings, the wife being a Corbin.

This is a great mistake. William Jennings, who left this property, was a bachelor, and only son to Robert Jennings, Aid de Camp to the celebrated duke of Marlborough. The wife of Robert Jennings, was the daughter and heir of Carew Guidot, Esq., and a lineal descendant of a Florentine Noble. King William III stood Godfather at the baptism of this William Jennings, who died intestate, June 19th, 1798, aged 98 years.

From documents in my possession, it appears that he was of a parsimonious disposition, much more given to penuriousness than hospitality, and amassed, during a long life, the vast estate of which such frequent mention has been made in the papers in this country.

I can only regret my own inability to establish a claim to this vast inheritance, now amounting, with accumulated interest, to an almost fabulous sum, and which must ere long escheat to the crown, unless legal claimants appear.

Yours,

R. JENNINGS.

PARENT VS. HUSBAND—LOVE VICTORIOUS.—Our city was yesterday the scene of an incident of romance and love, according beautifully with the opening season of floral beauty, purity and joy.

Passing hurriedly along William street, our attention was arrested by a miscellaneous and apparently excited assemblage in front of a private residence. Enquiring eagerly, we were informed by a dozen tremulous voices from the crowd, that a lady, young, blooming and beautiful flying (like Lord Ullin's daughter) from the wrath of an angry father, had been suddenly seized and secreted from her lover's eyes.

The romantic couple, we learn, are from York county, and came down on Wednesday evening, on board the "Augusta," to Portsmouth, for the purpose of being united in wedlock's holy bond. The father and brother of the fugitive daughter reached here yesterday morning in hot pursuit, breathing fire and brimstone, vengeance and vinegar. Too late, however, to turn the truant child; the shaft had flown—the knot was tied.

The young lady, in conscious security, leaving her liege lord in Portsmouth, was quietly promenading the quay of our city, when she was espied, seized and borne ti et armis, by her father and brother, to the above mentioned mansion. Upon legal investigation, the stern parent was forced by the strong arm of the law, to relent, and the young lady released, to be received in the arms of her enraptured William, who ignorant of her fate, had for several hours been writhing in an agony of despair.—Norfolk News 14th.

ABORIGINAL LONGEVITY.—Philip Conjequanda is an Indian of the Seneca nation. He is one hundred years old next June. He is straight as a may-pole, as athletic as a young buck, and as lively and cheerful as youth and innocence in a garden of roses. He lives in Chatauque county some fifty miles from this city, and walks into town as often as occasion or inclination prompts him to do so, thinking no more of it than he did eighty years ago. He dresses in the modern Indian costume, wearing a blanket with a hood attached. He was well acquainted with Washington; but what part he took, or whether any or not, in the war of the revolution, we are not informed. He tells very frequently, of visiting both the English and American camps, in the late war between the two countries; which goes to show that he then held, at least nominally, "a neutral position. He is now in this city attending a law suit, as a witness. How much longer his thread of existence may be spun out, no one can judge from appearance, as he shows no more signs of decay than a sound hearted oak in full foliage.—Buffalo Republic.

NEBRASKA SETTLERS—CONVENTION.—A Convention was recently held in Worcester Mass., of persons favorable to the establishment of a colony or colonies of New England men, in the territories of the West. There were forty or fifty delegates present, representing some twenty towns in Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut. John M. Earle was chosen president, and A. H. Cleveland, of New Salem, secretary. A series of resolutions in favor of the movement, and providing for the appointment of a committee to confer with the Emigrant's Aid Society was presented and adopted. A committee of seven was also appointed to make arrangements for a second Convention, to be held at Worcester on the 3d of May.

A Nebraska Emigrant's Aid Society, is about being incorporated by the Legislature of Massachusetts, with a capital of $5,000,000. The objects of the corporation appear to be the buying up of large tracts of government land, and the sending out of citizens and foreign born emigrants as tenant settlers as soon as the territory shall be organized. The Society thus proposes to fill up the Territory with free inhabitants, and to forestall public sentiment there against slaveholding.

Democratic Opinion of the Late Legislature.

From the Appleton Crescent.

A legislature which, as a body, could seek to achieve no higher glory than to needlessly expend the earnings of an industrious people, upon unnecessary and illegal schemes and measures; and which would remain in session for weeks upon legislation properly belonging to the several County Boards, is unworthy of public confidence or respect.

It is true that there were many and honorable opponents to the various projects for extravagance and high taxation, brought forward under auspices which should insure favor there; but these members were a minority in both branches.

It is said that Wisconsin is lightly taxed for State purposes in comparison with neighboring States. We admit it: nevertheless, we affirm without fear of contradiction, that instead of a Tax of six mills on the dollar, seven mills is a sufficient amount to support our state Government in a manner which which would command respect at home and abroad.

Until the true Democratic test is applied in the nomination and election of members of the Legislature and State officers; until honesty and capability is firmly insisted upon, and every candidate is weighed by the Jeffersonian standard; it is idle to expect a reform in our State Affairs.—Mere profession is not a sufficient guaranty: the people must demand practical proof, by making themselves conversant with the past history and character of candidates for office before they give them their confidence. The demagogue the time server, the wire-working office-seeker, has governed long enough. It is high time that practical men—not bankrupts in character or purse, or idle adventurers from the more populous States, dignified with pleasing exterior and persuasive voice—should be chosen as the Law Makers of Wisconsin.

Will the people see to it that none others represent them the coming year?

Paragraphs.

The annual report of the Secretary of the State of New York gives the whole number of paupers relieved during the year 1853, at 130,097.

The canal [illegible] of Philadelphia extends from Berby creek, on the north, a distance of twenty-three miles, and up the Schuylkill, in a [illegible] direction, about ten miles. It is estimated that there are one hundred and twenty [illegible] in the city. The population at this [illegible] two hundred and seventy-five [illegible].

The [illegible] says Mr. Donald McKay, [illegible] with two or three capitalists, is about [illegible] a new line of European packets, to [illegible] of three ships of 2,200 tons each, the [illegible] to be launched in two years.

It is said the editor of the [illegible] is delighted to learn that the "Czar refuses [illegible] manner he hopes will bring [illegible] the temperance society.—

A [illegible] lying high and dry on a hill [illegible] feet high and one thousand feet [illegible] of Sinope, fearfully records the terrible [illegible] and of one unfortunate ship, while the [illegible] shattered framework of a new Turkish corvette [illegible] which escaped all damage [illegible] and after the action, forms a strange contrast with all this horror and ruin.

The State Superintendent of Common Schools, at Lansing, recommends that two out of every three of the School Directors should know how to read and write. In one parish the warrant of the teacher on file, instead of the signatures, contained the mark, of twelve different Directors.

The Messagero di Modena states that it is the intention of the Commander-in-Chief of the French forces rapidly now to establish an entrenched camp near Civita Vecchia, with a few to fortify [illegible] places on that side.

Chicken Fever.

"Have we fowls?" and wonder why
The exchanges' mania takes so well,
Fowl spirits seem to multiply
And "Chickings" quickly sell.
Like an epidemic rages
This monomania far and near,
And many own a "Cochin-China"
Who have no coches here.

We are informed, says the Savannah Journal of April 16th, that the Captain-General of Cuba, last summer to the shilling of the Isabel, had directed that the books imported into that island shall be submitted to his personal examination at the Palace, instead of being examined at the Custom-house by a censor, as has hitherto been the case.

A correspondent of the N. Y. Crusader mentions the recent death, in Rome, of a nephew of Father Gavazzi, the religious reformer, on the 21st of February last. During the revolution which occurred in Italy five years since, he took an active part, for which course, upon being subsequently arrested, he was sentenced to twenty years imprisonment, in the prison of Diocletian, where he subsequently died.

Joseph H. Dorman, clerk in a silk store in New York, robbed, lost, and then embezzled his employers' money and goods to pay his losses.—Prison life is favorable to reflection after such a career, and he is now trying it.

A number of negroes was lately captured by [illegible] disposed of by the Cuban government, but the negroes have not been hired out as "emancipados," but as free apprentices, so that the apprenticed system may be considered as having commenced.

Some pertinent natural historian states, that it is now ascertained beyond doubt that a swan sings before it dies. Query: Is the yolk of the egg to be considered as the burden of its lay.

Hornets Tragedy.—The citizens of Elizabeth City, Va., were quite startled yesterday morning by the announcement of a heart-rending tragedy of their midst. Mr. James Parker, who for some months past has been visited with temporary aberrations of mind, about 12 o'clock shot his wife through the brain, killing her instantly. He then rushed out of the house and shot his horse, and returned and shot himself also through the brain, falling dead by the side of his murdered wife. The weapon used was the death-dealing revolver.—Norfolk Va News, April 20.

Fredrick County.—Gov. Barstow has made the following appointments of county officers for this new county in the North-western part of this state:—D. A. J. Baker, County Judge; Wm. Nettleton Sheriff; R. N. Nelson, District Attorney; Cato S. A. Markland, Register of deeds.—Fond du Lac Journal.

A number of emigrants have passed through the village during the past week on route for the copper regions. The receiver and register of the Land Office in this village, together with their clerks, have been very busy, owing to the great quantity of land which has been pre-empted in the Lake Superior country.—Hudson (St. Croix) Journal.

Col. E. M. Hunter, a State Senator from Milwaukee, has, in violation of the Constitution, been appointed Private Secretary to the Governor.—Appleton Crescent. (dem.)

Shameful.—A Mr. B. Payne, was arraigned in the Mayor's Court of Petersburg, Va., on the 55th ult., to answer sundry charges of naughty conduct towards Miss Williams. The young lady testified that Mr. P. blackguarded her, stole her keys, villified her reputation, and ruined her character and the front door of her residence."

A student of Latin, being confined to his room by sickness, was called upon by a friend, "What, John," said the visitor, "sick eh?," "Yes," answered John "sic sum."

If you wish to plague an editor, and make him feel that he is mortal, like his readers, steal his scissors.

Architectural.—Jones,—"How rapidly they build houses now," said Cornelius to an old acquaintance, as he pointed to a neat two story house,—"they commenced that building only last week, and they are already putting in the lights."

"Yes," rejoined his friend, "and next week they will put in the liver."

AN ACT to amend article four, of the Constitution.

The people of the State of Wisconsin represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section four of article four of the constitution, is hereby so amended as to read as follows: The members of Assembly shall be chosen biennially, by county, precincts, town or ward lines to consist of contiguous territory, and so to compact a form as practicable.

Sec. 2. The last clause of section five of said article is hereby so amended as to read as follows: The senate district shall be numbered in regular series. The senators chosen by the present odd numbered districts, in the year 1854, shall hold their offices until the last day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty six. The senators chosen by the present even numbered districts, in the year 1855, shall hold their offices until the last day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty eight. Thereafter, senators shall be chosen for the term of four years, but the legislature at any new appointment shall so classify the senators to be elected from any additional senate district which may be formed, that the term of office of all senators elected from even numbered districts shall expire at the same time, and the term of office of all those elected from odd numbered districts shall expire at the same time.

Sec. 3. Section eleven is hereby so amended as to read as follows: The legislature shall meet at the seat of Government once in two years, and not oftener, unless convened by the governor.

Sec. 4. The above amendments are hereby submitted to the people of the state in the following manner: At the general election on the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday of November next, each elector may vote for or against the first of the above amendments by depositing a ballot containing the following words: "For amendment to section four," or "Against amendment to section four," and for or against the second of the above amendments, by depositing a ballot containing the words "For amendment to section five," or "Against amendment to section five," and for or against the third of the above amendments by depositing a ballot containing the words "For amendment to section eleven," or "Against amendment to section eleven," and the vote given by any elector for or against any or all of said amendments, shall be on one ballot; and shall be deposited in a separate box prepared for the purpose. The qualification of the electors shall be the same, and the votes so cast shall be canvassed and returned in the same manner as in election for state officers, and the same notice of the submission shall be given; and if a majority of the electors voting on either of the above amendments, shall vote in favor thereof, it shall thereafter be a part of article four, of the constitution of this state.

Sec. 5. The first session of the legislature after the adoption of the above amendments, or either of them, by the people, shall be held in 1855.

Approved April 3, 1853.

CITY LAND OFFICE.

THE GREAT AND EXTENSIVE SALE of City Lots and Real Estate generally, will come off June 6th at 10 o'clock A. M., and continue from day to day. To all who intend to sell property at this sale, I would say, get to send me these list of Property as early as possible, as I am preparing a complete Catalogue, and I want sufficient time to send a number of them South and East. I am expecting several Capitalists here whose intention is to invest largely in Real Estate.

This opportunity is a rare one, and it is decidedly the best way to dispose of real estate for it brings in competition. Often four or five individuals want the same property and it is never known until it is offered at auction—the fact has been verified in several instances of which I am witness. This sale will be conducted in the same manner as real estate Sales in eastern and southern cities. All property shall and will be represented just as it is, and I shall be required of the purchaser to pay a certain per cent as soon as the property is bid off to him.

VOLUME X. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL. NEW SERIES

LEGAL NOTICES.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, } IN PROBATE.
MILWAUKEE COUNTY.
PROBATE OFFICE, April 10, A. D. 1854.

In the matter of the proof and Probate of the last will and testament of Dennis Carmody, deceased, late of the County of Milwaukee.

All persons so interested in writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of Dennis Carmody, deceased, late of the county of Milwaukee, has been filed in this office, and that [illegible] application has been made by Harriet Fitzgerald, one of the executors named in said will, for an order proving that the same be proven and admitted to record according to the law of this State.

It is therefore ordered that said application be heard at the office in the city of Milwaukee, in said county, on the fifth day of May A. D. 1854, at ten o'clock A. M.

And it is further ordered, that notice shall be given to all persons interested in said will, of the time and place of said hearing, by publication in the Daily Sentinel, a newspaper printed and published in said City, for three successive weeks, previous to the time of such hearing.

By the Court.
CHAS. E. JENKINS,
County Judge.

Milwaukee County—In Chancery.

[illegible] et al.,

In pursuance and by virtue of a decree of said Court, made and entered on the 12th day of April, A. THE WAY TO THE ALTAR.—MATRIMONY MADE EASY; OR, HOW TO WIN A LOVER.

"Love comes like comets, once in the grove,
For love is Heaven, and Heaven is love."
So sang the bard; yet thousands pine
For instant fit to the light divine—
Who did they know the gentle charm,
The hearts of those they love to warm,
Might live, might die, in bliss supreme,
Possessing all of which they dream.
The road to Wedlock would you know,
Delay not, but to ROUNDOUT go.
Time flies and from his gloomy wings
A shadow falls on Bachelor's things.
Then seize the moments as they pass,
Ere fall the last sands through the glass;
At least the choice is your own,
While all the future is unknown.
A happy marriage man or maid
May now secure by ROUNDOUT'S aid.

Professor ROUNDOUT, late of Italy, formerly of Sweden, where he has been the means of bringing about thousands of happy marriages, will send to any address, on receipt of one DIME, post paid, plain directions to enable ladies or Gentlemen to win the affections of as many of the opposite sex as they may desire. The process is so simple, but so captivating, that all may be married, irrespective of age, appearance or position; and beg, grieve not least, it can be arranged with the utmost care and delicacy. Address Professor ROUNDOUT, New York City, post paid.

I have no agents, and any person advertising themselves as such are vile swindlers, and I will prosecute them as the law directs.

N. B.—This is no humbug, but one of the greatest sciences that ever was discovered, which I respect, as a lady and gentlemen in the City of New York can attest to. No one will ever regret the price paid for such an invaluable secret. All letters properly sealed and plainly directed may be sent at the Professor's risk. mr31-3monly M&P

THE BUFFALO EAGLE IRON WORKS CO.

Propose to pay Particular attention to Architectural Iron Work.

WE are prepared to Manufacture IRON FRONTS for Stores and Public Buildings, with the Patent Fire Proof Rolling Shutters.

These Shutters are the same that are now so generally used in New York, and may be put in any Window, Small or Large, and if arranged before Goods are in the building, may be used without in the least affecting the style of Architecture. They make the only perfect Fire Proof Shutters, and do not appear to the eye when rolled up.

When ordered we will furnish the Plan for Store Fronts, (with or without the Patent shutters) with estimate for the Cost of the work finished ready for delivery. To our Western friends we think this arrangement will be desirable, for they thus are enabled to know without experiment what the Front is to be, and what it is to cost.

When the Patent Shutters are used we will furnish a man to superintend the erection of the Iron Front and the setting of the Shutters.
